The airport is named for local golf legend Arnold Palmer. This was his home field and sits in a beautiful area of the Allegehny Mountains. Please use our Forms/NE_FlyIn_RegForm if you are thinking of attending this fly-in. Use the drop-down list to select Latrobe PA. Also check out the option of offering (or requesting) to share the flight with another Comanche pilot. We will add your email to the list for any updates or weather discussions.
