Hi Pete.

I just got this fly-in announcement from Av Shiloh, claiming to be NE tribe chief.

As I said in previous mail, I'm completely disgusted with these guys, and don't want anything further to do with them. I'd like to reply to him, saying I want nothing to do with him or any organization of which he's a part, and to please take me off any list that has anything to do with ICS. I'll also say that I plan to keep being involved with the comanche pilots in the northeast, whether or not they have anything to do with ICS.

Any objection or suggestion to refine the message? Should I bcc, or even cc, the rest of the northeast? Any other thoughts?

TIA . . .

Subject: ICS NE Tribe Fly-in to Millville (KMIV) 4-27-2019

Dear ICS NE Tribe Members,

Our second tribe fly-in of the year will take place on Saturday, April 27, 2019 (with Sunday the 28th as a rain-date). The original April fly-in plan was to be Ocean City, MD but transportation to and from any possible luncheon locations proved to be too complex. We have therefore relocated it to Millville NJ, (KMIV).

Your invitation as well as a kneeboard for the fly-in is attached.

We'll be gathering at Millville (KMIV) at about 11:00am, and we plan to have lunch at Verna's Flight Line Restaurant on the field. After lunch you may choose to visit the Millville Army Airfield Museum near the south end of the ramp. Also, just south of the airport is Thunderbolt Race Track where you can try your hand at go-cart racing. A glass factory is also nearby and worth visiting.

Fuel is available from the Big Sky Aviation FBO for about $5.55 per gallon, full-serve.
